Atlantic Southeast Airlines names Brandee Reynolds to vice president – Inflight Services post

ASA veteran takes helm to lead operations, training for 1,000 flight attendants

ATLANTA – Aug. 29, 2008 – Atlantic Southeast Airlines (ASA), a wholly owned subsidiary of SkyWest, Inc. (NASDAQ: SKYW), has named Brandee Reynolds as vice president – Inflight Services. Reynolds will direct the daily operations of more than 1,000 ASA flight attendants and lead the company’s expanding flight attendant training program.

“Never has there been a more critical time to show our customers and partners ASA’s dedication to excellent customer service,” said Brad Holt, president and COO of ASA. “Brandee’s strong leadership history, passion for customer service, and in-depth understanding of ASA’s union environment qualify her as a perfect fit to lead our talented flight attendants and redirect our Inflight Services division.”

Reynolds began her career with ASA as a flight attendant in 1993. Throughout her 15 years with ASA, she has held roles of increasing responsibility including flight attendant supervisor, manager of Inflight Operations, director of Inflight Operations and, most recently, director of Labor Contract Administration where she played key roles in negotiating ASA’s labor contracts with its flight attendants and pilots. A graduate of Clayton State University with a degree in Business Administration, Reynolds lives in the Atlanta area with her husband and two children.
